

THE LEGAL ASPECTS OF TREES, TIMBER, LOGS AND LOGGING

Walter G. Robillard
1756 Century Blvd. Suit B.
Atlanta, GA. 30345
404-248-1602

robw@mindspring.com

Website: www.worldboundaries.com

SCOPE: Trees, timber and logs are a unique product of the land. This seminar will examine how the law looks at and considers these products. Using basic law and current statutes, as well as case law, the teaching will be directed towards giving the attendees a better understanding of this renewable natural resource.

OUTLINE

- I. UNDERSTANDING PROPERTY AND PROPERTY RIGHTS.
- II. STANDING TIMBER ON OR NEAR BOUNDARY LINES.
CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS IN EACH STATE.
- III. FRUCTUS NATURALIS; WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO THE FORESTER?
- IV. THE NATURE OF STANDING TIMBER.
- V. CUT TIMBER.
- VI. THE LEGAL SIGNIFIANCE OF
STANDING TIMBER
CUT LOGS AND TIMBER