

BOUNDARY CONTROL

&

LEGAL PRINCIPLES

SCOPE: This is an intensive workshop predicated on the famous textbook and research treatise that has been the foundation of survey schools and boards of licensing.

The speaker will discuss his personal conversations and relationship with the late Curt Brown as he will relate what Curt related to him as to his reasoning behind his writing this classic textbook. The speaker will then finalize this seminar with his reasoning to its modernization.

OUTLINE

- I My conversations with Curt as to why he compiled this book.
- II. Understanding the Prefaces and what they tell us today.
- III. The reasoning behind the chapter sequence.
- IV. Reasoning behind highlighting the Principles.
- V. Understanding property and rights.
- VI. History of Boundary Creation.
- VII. The Distinction between Metes & Bounds and GLO Surveys.
- VIII. Understanding the Words Used to Create Boundaries.
- IX. The surveyors Role in Boundaries.